

Senior Medical Writer

Between £60,000-£70,000 p.a. depending on experience, + Benefits

Office-based in Dorking, Surrey with hybrid working option.
This role requires occasional travel to attend client meetings.

EDGE is an expanding organisation. As a result of continued growth with an established client working on an exciting blockbuster drug, we have an opportunity now to take on a professional and committed individual to join our UK team. This is a good opportunity for someone with a keen interest in delivering medical education programmes.

You will be involved in content creation within a supportive and close-knit team that has a strong and established partnership with our pharmaceutical client. The work is diverse with a wide range of content development for virtual and face-to-face medical education meetings, several medical education websites, and internal communications. This role will entail being able to interpret and present scientific/clinical data and other complex information in a clear, concise, and accurate format for varied audiences, which should be a natural result of your understanding and keen interest in the development of pharmaceutical products.

You will need to enjoy the challenge of working in a reactive and fast-paced role and have the confidence to lead projects within the wider programme of work.

Do you have a post-graduate degree qualification (preferably PhD) or tertiary degree in a medical, pharmaceutical, or healthcare discipline with some postdoctoral research experience, preferably including authorship on publications?

Do you have at least 2 years of commercial medical writing experience (ideally writing in a medical communications agency setting)?

Would you be comfortable dealing with our clients directly and accepting your responsibility within the team for ensuring the success of programme delivery?

Do you have experience of working with Veeva PromoMats?

Do you have good knowledge of the Association of the British Pharmaceutical Industry (ABPI) Code of Practice?

If so, come and talk to us!

We operate within a flexible working environment where staff satisfaction and work-life balance are important company values. We nurture our team, working from integrated offices in the UK and Australia, to learn and grow with the business. We are looking for a full-time employee but can be flexible about part-time working options for the right applicant(s), so please come and talk to us if you meet our requirements!

EDGE is a medical communications consultancy established more than 20 years ago, with strong, long-term relationships with pharmaceutical clients. We support our pharmaceutical partners through accurate, insightful, and engaging communications to realise the promise of new medicines.

To apply, please send a covering letter and CV to liz@madebyedge.com
